Will Sadler and Maggie Harper Will Sadler and Maggie Harper created a commotion on Railroad avenue yesterday about 1 o'clock by engaging in a fracas. One of the four policemen which the generous City Council allows for day duty in the city put in an appearance, but the man and girl escaped. They will be arrested on warrants for disturbing the peace.

The mayor's office has at last been the mayor's omee has at last been fitted up with gas fixtures. Now if they will only build a suitable and decent house around those gas fixtures the mayor's office of Roanoke will cease to be a disgrace to the city.

"Luck and Pluck"

Is the subject of Dr. J. Lafferty's lecture to-night at the Greene Memorial Church. The object of the lecture is to Church. The object of the lecture is to raise funds for the Mexican mission school at Chimahua. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Society of the above named church. The Nashville Christian Advocate says: "A lecture from Dr. Lafferty on "Luck and Pluck drew a full house. It was a marvelous composite—classical, humerous suggestive. The applause and laughter were immense." The Times bespeaks for Dr. Lafferty a full house. He is too well known to need any praise.
